

RIGHTS OF WHAT?

What is a right-of-way and how do I know how wide it is?

A right-of-way is a term used to describe “right of passage” over another’s land. The typical right-of-way is often 33 feet wide and includes the road and shoulder or berm. (See diagram)

How am I affected?

Understanding rights-of-way is important when placing yard sale signs, mailboxes, parking cars, etc. Greene Township road crews need access to the rights-of-way to plow snow, apply anti-skid in the cold months and cut back the shoulders and mow in the spring and summer.

Can or Cannot?

- Landowners should not block a right-of-way when it is used for entry or exit by others.
- Landowners are asked to avoid redirecting rainwater and run-off onto a township road.
- It is illegal to place snow or grass onto the right-of-way.

What if my tree is in the right-of-way?

The township road crew appreciates every landowner’s attempt to keep the right-of-way free from tall weeds, trees and bushes. Several times each year, shoulders are cut back and limbs and weeds are clipped for safety and sight-distance. If a tree falls onto a township road, our crew will move the tree to the side for the safety of travelers. The landowner is then free to move the tree further.

Q. Who do I call for an emergency - like when a tree or downed wire is blocking the road?

A. Ask yourself if the road is maintained by the State or the Township.

HONORING THE SCOUTS & TROOPS

Over the years, many Greene Township properties have benefitted from numerous volunteers including South Side High School Seniors, Honor Society Members and Litter Crews. The scouts, especially, are an integral piece of the process to maintain, improve, and rejuvenate our parks, nature trails and public properties. We dedicate this section to the scouts and their families whose tireless efforts are appreciated by the Supervisors and residents alike.

COMMUNITY FOR OVER 60 YEARS!

Many adults currently living in our area have spent many years in the cub and boy scout programs, enjoying time with their parents as youth! They are now enjoying many of those activities with their own sons & daughters as they let them experience success AND failure in a safe environment with helpful, mentoring adults. Yes, daughters are now enjoying scouting too!

Consider the things you want your child to learn by the time they reach adulthood. Through Scouting, they can develop strength of mind and body, courage, respect for others, the ability and awareness to take care of themselves, to speak their mind confidently, to be leaders and help in their communities. These are the things that Scouting Programs with good adult leadership can provide to help our Scouts navigate through life, both now and in the future.

There is a Strong Focus on many facets of safety in Scouts! All adults involved with Scouts are required to have a background check and clearances to work with minors. All adults are required to have training on recognizing, preventing, and reporting abuse with a system to report that abuse as well. A Scout is never alone with an adult leader. They are always with at least one other Scout, and Leaders are required to practice the 'two deep' rule for adults. Parents are welcomed and encouraged to have a presence in activities at all levels. All Scouts learn First Aid and are required to take a swim test every year in order to participate in any activities on or in the water. Many of the 137 merit badges involve learning safety rules.

Scouting - Relevant Now and for Life. With the current trends towards learning to be more self-sufficient and a feeling that we should spend more time with our families in a time when things feel unstable, Scouting has become more relevant than ever!

YOUR INVITATION TO LEARN MORE

Jeff Ronosky CM • Larry Infantozzi SM

Chester Bealles Jr ASM • Wayne Simkins ASM

Said one Eagle Scout, as he moved on in life watching his son grow up in the Cub program, earn his Arrow of Light and finish in the Boy Scout program by earning his own Eagle rank! And for youth & adults all around the world, it has indeed been "A Way of Life". Many an adult will tell you that there is nothing more rewarding than to see children grow into young women and men as they prepare for adulthood via lessons they have learned while in the Scouting programs. Quite rewarding indeed.

Scouting carries over into adulthood like few other extracurricular activities can
